

Realogy Promotes Education by Partnering with Junior Achievement of New Jersey

PARSIPPANY, N.J. (Feb. 18, 2010) — Junior Achievement of New Jersey (JANJ) recently held its "JA Day" program where 35 employees from Realogy Corporation, a global provider of real estate and relocation services, volunteered to teach 278 third- through fifth-grade students at Alexander Hamilton Elementary School in Morristown, N.J., about business and how education plays an important role in the workplace.

"We thank Realogy for its support of Junior Achievement of New Jersey and our programs," said Catherine Milone, president of JANJ. "Through the volunteer efforts of our corporate sponsors we are able to reach out to our youth and help develop our future leaders by inspiring them to value financial literacy, business, and economics."

Upcoming Realogy/JANJ events include:

- Dr. Seuss Read Day: On March 2nd, Realogy employees will return to Alexander Hamilton Elementary School to read to students in support of the National Education Association's "Read Across America" campaign.
- Job Shadow Day: Also, approximately 50 Morristown High School Students will visit Realogy's corporate headquarters in Parsippany for a one-day, on-site orientation that provides an authentic real-life work experience.
- Bowl-A-Thon Fundraiser: In June, Realogy is scheduled to hold its fourth annual Bowl-a-Thon for JANJ. The event has raised more than $25,000 over the past two years.

"It is important to support our community and our schools, which makes our participation in Junior Achievement of New Jersey's programs so fulfilling," said Dave Weaving, chief administrative officer for Realogy. "We are excited about expanding our relationship with both Junior Achievement of New Jersey and Alexander Hamilton School this year to provide additional educational opportunities for our local students."

Weaving, who is a JANJ State Board Member, is also chairman of the 2010 New Jersey Business Hall of Fame, which will hold its 2010 induction ceremony on April 29 with proceeds going to JANJ. Michael Miedler, a vice president with Realogy's Century 21 Real Estate, serves on JANJ's North District Board.

About Junior Achievement of New Jersey

Junior Achievement's (JA) mission is to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. Through a dedicated volunteer network, JA provides in-school and after-school programs for students in grades K-12. JA offers work readiness programs that focus on seven key content areas: business, citizenship, economics, entrepreneurship, ethics/character, financial literacy, and career development. JA Worldwide® reaches 9.8 million students per year in 367,305 classrooms and after-school locations. JA programs are taught by volunteers in inner cities, suburbs, and rural areas throughout the United States of America and in 123 countries. For more information, visit www.ja.org.

This year, Junior Achievement of New Jersey, a member of JA Worldwide™, will reach approximately 33,000 students in the Garden State. Since the merger in 2002 of the four Junior Achievement entities in New Jersey, JANJ now operates as a statewide 501(c) 3 organization with a governing State Board of Directors and three District Boards that help support both fundraising and program efforts in the southern, central, and northern parts of New Jersey.
