

Milone honored as one of New Jersey's Best 50 Women in Business

PRINCETON — Catherine Milone, president of Junior Achievement of New Jersey (JANJ) has been named one of New Jersey's 2014 Best 50 Women in Business. The award program, produced by NJBIZ, New Jersey's premier business news publication, is sponsored by Wells Fargo, Withum Smith+Brown, PC, Comcast Business and Wolff & Samson PC.

NJBIZ and the program sponsors will honor this year's winners during an awards ceremony on Monday, March 24 at The Palace at Somerset Park in Somerset. The honorees will also be highlighted in a special supplement to NJBIZ on March 31.

"Catherine Milone is extremely deserving to be part of the first class of women representing non-profits in the NJBIZ Top 50 awards program. She is full of energy, enthusiasm and is a leader with the utmost integrity. Catherine is a well-respected advocate on K-12 issues that better prepares New Jersey's kids for the future in this competitive world. I feel lucky to know her and to serve on her board," said Michelle Lee, Wells Fargo's Northeast Regional president and JANJ State Board Director.

For more information about the NJBIZ Best 50 Women in Business awards program or to reserve seats for the event, please visit www.njbiz.com/events or contact Melissa Sullenberger at melissas@njbiz.com or 732-246-5737.