

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2013
WALDWICK SUBURBAN NEWS

Nancy E. Graves elected to Junior Achievement State Board of Directors

Junior Achievement of New Jersey (JANJ) has announced that Nancy E. Graves of Pascack Community Bank and Pascack Community Bancorp, Inc. in Waldwick has been elected to its State Board of Directors.

"We are pleased to have Nancy join our Board of Directors and bring her extensive background of finance and banking. Her leadership in the business community will help Junior Achievement ensure future success." said Catherine Milone, president of Junior Achievement of New Jersey.

Graves is currently president, chief executive officer and board director of Pascack Community Bank and Pascack Community Bancorp, Inc. and brings more than 30 years of banking experience with her to the bank.

Graves said, "I am honored to join the Junior Achievement State Board of Directors. I look forward to serving with this very distinguished board and to bringing the outstanding JA programs to our communities."

Prior to joining Pascack Community Bank, Graves served in New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's administration for three years as Assistant Division Director of the Department of Banking and Insurance where she oversaw the supervision and regulation of over 80 state-chartered financial institutions. In her official capacity, she served as a member of the New Jersey Office of Homeland Security, Financial Sector Working Group and the EDA Board, Loan and Audit Committees.

Prior to her appointment, Graves held executive level management positions at several community banks in New Jersey and Missouri serving in various capacities, including chief operating officer and executive vice-president.

Graves is a founding director of the Coalition for Children, which provides training for children, parents and teachers to raise awareness and prevent abduction, abuse and bullying. She has two daughters and currently resides in Westfield.

Junior Achievement of New Jersey is dedicated to giving young people the knowledge and skills they need to own their economic success, plan for their future, and make smart academic and economic choices. JA programs are delivered by corporate and community volunteers. They provide relevant, hands-on experiences that give students from kindergarten through high school knowledge and skills in financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship. This past year, JANJ reached 44,799 students in more than 71 school districts across the New Jersey. For more information, visit www.janj.org. Follow JANJ on Twitter and like JANJ on Facebook.

Pascack Bancorp is the holding company for Pascack Community Bank; a New Jersey chartered commercial bank founded in 2002 with eight branches serving Bergen and northern Essex counties. The bank provides personalized banking and lending services to consumers and local small to medium size businesses, with a strong emphasis on relationship banking.