

CITY OF ORANGE MAYOR AND SUPERINTENDENT VISIT CAPITAL ONE/JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT FINANCE PARK FOR OPENING DAY

A Simulated Community, Where Young People Learn Financial Life Lessons

Newark, NJ : City of Orange Mayor Eldridge Hawkins, Jr. and Superintendent Ronald C. Lee joined Junior Achievement of New Jersey as they kicked off opening day at Capital One/Junior Achievement Finance Park, located at 540 Broad Street, Verizon State Headquarters. On February 7th and 8th, more than 180 students from Orange High School will visit the park and gain first-hand budgeting experience as they spend the day as an adult. Prior to visiting Capital One/Junior Achievement Finance Park, these students will have spent critical hours in the classroom on money management lessons as part of the JA Finance Park program.

More than 3,000 middle and high school-aged students will experience Capital One/Junior Achievement Finance Park in New Jersey, which will be open through early April.

